Mission Statement

What is your congregation’s or organization’s Mission Statement?

“To glorify God, and by the power of the Holy Spirit, provide opportunities for all people to know, love and follow Jesus Christ.”

NARRATIVE QUESTIONS

(For each narrative question, please limit your responses to no more than 1500 characters including spaces and punctuation.)

1. What is the congregation's or organization's vision for ministry? Additionally describe how this vision is lived out.

Our congregation is passionate about Jesus Christ, glorifies God through Christ-centered worship, which is central to our corporate life, and grows the Kingdom of God through opportunities for education, service, mission, fellowship, and witness.

Members build on St. Mark's strengths in order to serve each other, the growing Boerne community, and communities beyond our usual borders. These strengths include: a welcoming atmosphere for visitors; a feeling of fellowship and family for members; both contemporary and traditional worship services with a Biblically-based message; a strong Christian Education program for children, youth, and adults, where spiritual growth is nurtured; an on-campus Early Learning Center that provides a Christian-based education for Boerne preschoolers; an uplifting and diverse music program; an active local mission program; and a compassionate pastoral care program.

Members have stepped forward to keep the church active through recent transition periods. We will continue to articulate our church mission moving forward, communicate to keep members informed about what is going on within the church, and continue learning how to heal after conflict.

2. How do you feel called to reach out to address the emerging needs of your community or constituency?

St. Mark is called in many ways to reach out to the community and beyond. It has demonstrated in the past, and continues to place for the future, a high priority on the outreach aspects of its ministries. Locally, support has been provided to St. Mark's Early Learning Center, Boerne's only nationally accredited preschool, and to Boerne's bread ministry, family services and pregnancy center. Regionally, St. Mark has supported the Presbyterian Children's Home, the Presbyterian Pan American School, Schreiner University and Austin Theological Seminary. St. Mark gives generously to the four special offerings of the PC(USA) and has been recognized for its level of commitment to these offerings.

With respect to addressing our own constituency, St Mark has an active and committed ten-member Diaconal ministry team which strives to serve God by serving others. That service is exemplified by our prayer ministry, visitation ministry, meal deliveries and transportation assistance for members in need.

St. Mark strives to allocate 10% of its total budget to outreach ministries. It would be absolutely impossible to effectively support all of the above-mentioned projects with this funding alone. However, members of St. Mark continue to be extremely generous with not only funding for special outreach opportunities, but also with the gift of their time.

A comprehensive listing of all Outreach and Diaconal Ministries can be seen in the 2019 Annual Report on the St Mark website www.stmarktx.org

3. How will this position help you to reach your vision and mission goals?

As part of the body of Reformed churches, we glorify God by offering two worship opportunities (contemporary and traditional), in which we affirm our faith in the one Triune God. With the many gifts the Holy Spirit has given to our diverse community of believers at St. Mark, we endeavor to carry the Word into the community, exhibiting the love of Jesus Christ in our daily life. We are a servant church, dedicated to Bible-based Christian education, community outreach and support of Presbyterian missions and other missions locally and throughout the world. We believe it is important that we prayerfully foster a caring and dynamic community of believers, sharing with all people the Good News of the love of God, of repentance, and of faith in Jesus as Lord and Savior.

To fulfill our mission and vision goals, the congregation desires to partner with the new pastor to:

- Achieve stability with a new Pastor, Head of Staff who provides vision, leadership and relatability
- Increase membership obtaining advantages of a medium-sized vibrant church
- Attract younger families with children and youth
- Reach out beyond the church walls to do more in the Boerne community
- Help church members grow in spiritual maturity and discipleship
- To quote a church banner: "Rekindle the Passion!"

4. Provide a description of the characteristics needed by the person who is open to being called to this congregation and/or organization.

The desired qualities most quoted in our 2020 Mission Study are: approachable, spiritually mature, good listener, sense of humor, honest, wise, open-minded, kind, loving, and insightful.

With these traits in mind, we desire the pastor to:

- Inspire the congregation and be comfortable speaking in all settings
- Motivate others and encourage them to use their gifts in service
- Have the ability to build relationships of trust and respect within the church and community and be willing to engage conflict proactively

- Be able to embrace St. Mark's vision and mission and be able to enhance them with a clear strategy
- Be adaptable and open to new ideas and to communicate these ideas to the congregation

St. Mark needs a pastor whose faith drives his or her public and personal life while possessing the wisdom and spiritual maturity to know when to charge ahead and when to hold back.

The pastor will model compassion and care for people and share in the suffering of others. While balancing our desire to appreciate our rich history, the new pastor should welcome new voices as we look toward the future. We seek a shepherd who will guide the church in discovering God's purpose for St. Mark within our community and the world.

5. For what specific tasks, assignments, and programs areas will this person have responsibility?

The pastor of St. Mark, with the support and collaboration of the congregation, will be responsible for key areas in leadership, pastoral care, and implementing our church vision. This includes:

- Deepening and enriching our spiritual walk with Christ
- Working with the worship committee to continue St. Mark's tradition of deeply meaningful worship experiences, with inspired preaching and teaching from the Word. This will include leading a traditional and contemporary worship service each week and leading a weekly pastor-led study.
- Leading as head of staff at the church. He or she will develop and maintain an effective staff team. The pastor will be responsible for maintaining a positive, healthy work environment.
- Showing compassion to sick and grieving in the congregation. This person will make hospital and home visits to those in need. He or she will counsel church families and individuals and refer people to professional counselors when necessary.
- Participating in the on-campus Early Learning Center (ELC) by attending the Christmas and end-of-year school events and weekly chapels
- Supporting the Mission Presbytery/PC(USA) by attending quarterly Presbytery meetings, encouraging elders to attend and report back to the congregation
- Facilitating healthy communication, promoting unity, and establishing a rapport with people of all ages and backgrounds

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

The unity of believers in Christ is reflected in the rich diversity of the Church's membership. In Christ, by the power of the Spirit, God unites persons through baptism regardless of race, ethnicity, age, sex, disability, geography, or theological conviction. There is therefore, no place in the life of the Church for discrimination against any person. The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) shall guarantee full participation and representation in its worship, governance, and emerging life to all persons or groups within its membership. No member shall be denied participation or representation for any reason other than stated in this Constitution. (F-1.0403)

Each Pastor Nominating committee and Search committee is expected to undertake its search for a Teaching Elder in a manner consistent with the good news that in the church "...as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus."

Has the Pastor Nominating Committee and Search Committee affirmed its intention to follow the Form of Government in this regard?

Yes

No
